Is it so pecial that security surrounds the purpose it is not asserted or established that the necessity for auch neourity would prevent the filling of a claim of this nature through normal channels, i.e. Army Claims Service. would seem since still in the Army (although on terminal leave) and was flying in an Army sirplane and was authorized to be transported either formally or informally by Milj. Gen. Curtle Le May, that it is possible to process his claim to the Army Claims Service Purther, under the Special Funds Regulations prescribed by the Director, CIG, there exists no suthority for Special Funds to may claims of this nature. Consequently, if it is establimited that the security factors involved prevent filing a claim through normal charmels, it would be necessary to present this matter in appropriate form to the Director, CIC, for approval before payment could be made by Special Funds.
